A large, stylized blue cloud graphic that serves as a background for a crossword puzzle. The crossword grid is composed of white rectangular cells with black borders. The grid is partially filled with weather-related icons: a bright yellow sun with orange rays is positioned on the left side, partially overlapping the grid; a blue rain cloud with three white raindrops is located on the right side, also partially overlapping the grid. The crossword grid consists of the following rows of cells:

- Row 1: 8 cells
- Row 2: 4 cells (aligned under the 4th to 7th cells of Row 1)
- Row 3: 10 cells (aligned under the 1st to 10th cells of Row 1)
- Row 4: 5 cells (aligned under the 1st to 5th cells of Row 1)
- Row 5: 8 cells (aligned under the 1st to 8th cells of Row 1)
- Row 6: 8 cells (aligned under the 1st to 8th cells of Row 1)

A large, stylized cloud shape containing a grid of empty boxes for writing. The grid is composed of several rows of boxes of varying lengths, arranged in a zig-zag pattern. On the left side of the grid, there is a colorful illustration of a sun with rays and two blue clouds. On the right side, there is a blue cloud with three raindrops falling from it. The entire grid and illustrations are enclosed within a blue outline that mimics the shape of a cloud.

A large, stylized cloud shape containing a grid of empty rectangular boxes. The grid is arranged in several rows and columns, with some cells missing or overlapping. To the left of the grid is a pixelated sun with yellow and orange rays, partially obscured by two light blue clouds. To the right of the grid is a blue rain cloud with three blue raindrops falling from it. The entire scene is enclosed within a blue outline of a cloud.
