

The image features a detailed, monochromatic grey coat of arms of Russia centered on a dark blue background with a fine grid pattern. The coat of arms depicts a double-headed eagle with its wings spread wide. The eagle's chest is covered by a shield containing a figure of a warrior on horseback, slaying a dragon. Above the eagle's heads are three crowns, and in its talons, it holds a scepter and a globe. The text "Великие имена России." is superimposed over the eagle's chest in a white, serif font.
