

История возникновения чугунного утюга

Первые утюги

Углевые утюги

Музей утюга в Переславле-Залесском

Портные используют разные утюги

of Linen squares.

of fine linen with small ruffling for adhered lace and three-eighths of an inch wide, and of quarter of an inch wide with a narrow band, and are fastened with a row of stitches in sleeve is cuff, which is fastened with the lace on the cuff, as shown in the illustration on page 32.

CUFF FOR LINEN COLLAR WITH SWISS MUSLIN RUFFLES.
For pattern and description see Supplement, No. XIII, Fig. 38.

the under side with a cross-stitch lengthwise and then cross-stitch on page 237. To appear raised on the outside of underlaid with a piece of white muslin size before working the raised squares look as if they were stitched on the right side, finished by a cross seam on the

SLEEVE FOR LINEN AND SWISS MUSLIN COLLAR.
For pattern and description see Supplement, No. X, Figs. 30 and 31.

LINEN COLLAR WITH SWISS MUSLIN RUFFLES.

For pattern and description see

SWISS MUSLIN AND LACE COLLAR.
For pattern and description see Supplement, No. XII, Figs. 35 and 36.

LINEN COLLAR WITH RAISED SQUARES.
[See Page 237.]

For pattern see Supplement, No. XI, Fig. 32.

SLEEVE FOR LINEN COLLAR WITH RAISED SQUARES.—[For pattern and description see Supplement, No. XI, Figs. 33 and 34.]

SLEEVE FOR SWISS MUSLIN AND LACE COLLAR.
For description see Supplement.

join the ends of the fabric of which marked * Cover this linen, the continued the collar, of an inch the narrow front and the w Cut the sl

SLEEVE FOR SWISS MUSLIN AND LACE COLLAR.
For description see Supplement.

H. 1872
illustration and indicated on the page 237, which shows a full binding), and sew on the gathered cuffs into a double binding cut which is furnished with button fastening on the pattern. Finally binding; in doing this, however the ends of the binding should be an inch from the slit. These are a button and button-hole, and

