Vocabulary

25 Read the definitions from a dictionary and answer the questions.

- 1 What is the difference between holiday and festival?
- 2 What is the Russian for holiday?
- 3 What is the Russian for festival?

holiday — 1. day of rest from work
2. (often plural) period of rest from work

festival — 1. (day or season for) public celebrations
2. series of performances (of music, ballet, drama, etc.) given periodically, usually once a year

Reading and speaking

26 Read the text and answer the question. What do you know about Maslenitsa?

There are many festivals shared by people all over the world. One of them is known by the name Maslenitsa in Russia, Pancake Day in England, Mardi Gras or Fat Tuesday in the USA. The holiday is religious in origin: people eat rich, fatty foods before fasting for many days during the season of Lent. But today people don't think much of religion when they celebrate it.

Vocabulary

religious
Lent — Великий пост (перед Пасхой)
to fast — поститься

Useful words and phrases

I think, ...	No, I don't think so.
I guess, ...	Sorry, you are wrong.
Right you are.	I'm afraid you are wrong.
Good.	That's not right, I'm afraid.

27 Give names to these festive activities. Match the name with the picture. What are they called in Russian? Have you ever done any of these?

- 1 troika rides
- 2 pole climbing
- 3 puppet theatre
- 4 tug-of-war contest
- 5 sledging
- 6 bear show
- 7 storming a snow fort

28 Read some statements about one of the most popular festivals of Russia. Are these statements true or false?

- 1 Maslenitsa is a summer holiday.
- 2 A pancake was a symbol of the Sun in pagan Russia.
- 3 The celebrations take a whole week.
- 4 Burning the scarecrow Maslenitsa opens celebrations.

Now read the text and check your answers.

Maslenitsa is one of the most popular festivals in Russia. It is pagan in origin, signals the end of winter and welcomes the coming of spring. Russian pancakes — blini — are very important in the celebration of Maslenitsa. They are given to friends and family all through the week. Blini are eaten with jam, sour cream, and of course, lots of butter. Warm, round, and golden — blini are the symbol of the sun! Ancient Russians actually believed that by eating a pancake, they were getting a part of the Sun's life energy.

The festival is week-long. It starts on Monday and ends on Sunday. Troika rides, sledging, puppet theater, pole climbing, tug-of-war contests, and fireworks are all a part of the Maslenitsa celebrations. There is usually a 'storming' of a snow fort. In the 18th century there were bear shows too! But don't be afraid if you see a bear now. It is an actor dressed in a bear costume!

The week ends up by burning the scarecrow "Maslenitsa" symbolizing winter. In this way people say goodbye to winter till the next year and welcome the coming of spring.

Answer the questions.

- 1 What traditional dish is served at Maslenitsa?
- 2 Why is it an important part of celebrations?
- 3 What is the difference between bear shows in the past and today?

Reading and speaking

- 21 What's your favourite winter holiday? Why? Choose your favourite holiday in this calendar and read about it. Then tell the class about this holiday.

Winter Holidays' Calendar

December 25

United Kingdom, New Zealand, Australia, the USA:
Christmas Day

The Christmas story comes from the Bible. The nativity scene — the birth of Jesus Christ — is very important in a true celebration of Christmas. At Christmas time you can see it in most Christian countries. Christmas is a time for rejoicing, merry-making, giving presents and feasting.

December 28

United Kingdom, New Zealand & Australia:
Boxing Day

It's a public holiday which gives the opportunity to relax after celebrating Christmas late at night. Traditionally on this day postmen, errand boys and servants of various kinds were given Christmas boxes with presents and/or money.

January 1

United Kingdom, Australia, the USA, Russia:
New Year Day

In England the New Year is not as widely celebrated as Christmas. The British usually go to the New Year's dance in hotel or dance hall. On January 1, Americans visit friends and relatives. Many Americans watch the Tournament of Roses parade in Pasadena California over TV. January in California is a warm sunny month with a lot of flowers. But the Russians have the longest New Year holidays in the world — 5 days before another official holiday — Russian Christmas.

January 7

Russian Christmas

Russian Orthodox Church uses old calendar for church festivals. The difference between our modern and that old calendar is 13 days. That is why Russians celebrate Christmas on January 7 and other countries celebrate it on December 25.

January 13

Russian 'Old New Year'

Because of these different calendars, many Russians celebrate the New Year twice! TV repeats New Year programmes, people cook nice things to eat, and we are just happy to have another celebration.

Vocabulary

- 22 Read the definitions of these words. Try to explain in Russian the difference between 'holiday' and 'festival'. Give your examples of Russian holidays and festivals.

holiday	a) day of rest from work b) (often plural) period of rest from work festival	a) (day or season for) rejoicing; public celebrations b) series of performances (music, ballet etc.) given usually once a year

Project idea

- 23 Would you like to have a New Year party at school? You can organise an international party. Think about the date and time of the party and where it is. Decide what you can do at the party: listen to music, dance, make a performance, eat special food or something else. Make a poster with invitation.

- представление информации в наглядной форме (в виде простейших таблиц, схем и диаграмм)

5 The best way to get to school

Reading

5 Robert did a survey of students' opinions about travelling to school in the centre of the City of Bristol.

Read the results. Then answer the question.
How many means of transport are mentioned in the text?

THE RAP

School transport survey

by Robert Young

I interviewed a hundred students about their journey to school. They all live a maximum of five kilometres from their school.

Here are the questions I asked:

- How do you get to school?
- What are the advantages and disadvantages of this form of transport?

And here are the results:

- How do you get to school?
 - by bicycle 30 people
 - by bus 35 people
 (35 students walk to school because they live very near).

2 What are the advantages and disadvantages of these forms of transport?

Bicycle	Advantages	Bus	Advantages
18	the quickest way	23	the easier way
9	the most enjoyable way	7	the most comfortable way
3	the healthiest way	5	the cheapest way

Bicycle	Disadvantages	Bus	Disadvantages
21	the most dangerous way	23	the slowest way
9	the coldest way	12	the most boring way

Obviously the best way to get to school depends on how far you live from school. Many students would prefer to walk to school but they live too far away. The biggest problem in Bristol is the traffic, so if you go to school by bus it's slower and more boring. For many students the quickest way to get to school is by bicycle. So if you go to school by bicycle, it's quicker and you enjoy the journey more. But many cyclists are worried about the dangers of cycling in heavy traffic. And of course, riding a bicycle is not very enjoyable when it rains and when it's cold! But in my opinion the best way to get to school is by bicycle and the worst way to get there is by bus.

6 Answer the questions.

- How many people did Robert interview?
- How many people go to school by bicycle?
- How many people go to school by bus?
- Why do some people walk to school?
- What's the biggest advantage of going to school by bicycle?
- What's the biggest advantage of going to school by bus?
- What's the biggest disadvantage of going to school by bicycle?
- What's the biggest disadvantage of going to school by bus?

Gory burger posters target young

David Evans Health Editor

POSTERS OF burger rolls filled with bones and fat have appeared across the UK to shock children into improving their diets and help fight obesity. It is estimated that a quarter of young people will be overweight by 2020.

The British Heart Foundation's campaign follows a survey which showed that 36% of eight to fourteen-year-olds did not know the main ingredient of chips was potato. Nearly one in ten of the children questioned thought chips were made of oil, while others suggested eggs, apples and flour.
