

A vibrant, magical forest scene. In the foreground, a large, gnarled tree trunk stands on the left, surrounded by green moss and small red mushrooms. To its right, a stream of glowing blue water flows through a lush landscape. The stream is bordered by tall grasses, numerous white daisies, and a large, mossy rock. The background is filled with dense green foliage and a soft, ethereal glow, suggesting a sunlit forest. The overall atmosphere is dreamlike and enchanting.
