Handwritten text in a cursive script, possibly a diary or journal entry, covering the upper and right portions of the page. The text is dense and somewhat illegible due to the cursive style and some fading.

Sketches of human faces and profiles, arranged vertically on the left side of the page. The sketches show various expressions and features, including profiles and three-quarter views.

Sketches of human faces and profiles, arranged in a more scattered, overlapping manner on the right side of the page. The sketches are more expressive and less detailed than those on the left page.
