В гостях у Снежной Королевы

A woman wearing a crown and a long dress sits on a throne. The throne is set against a background of intense red and orange flames. The scene is framed by dark, jagged rock formations.
