

An illustration of a scene from a story. In the center, a large white rectangular board is mounted on a wooden frame. A boy with a red shirt and a witch in a green hat are perched on the top bar of the frame. The witch is holding a net. To the left, a large, hairy, purple-skinned ogre-like creature is crouching and holding a small yellow object. To the right, a wolf and a black cat are also present. The background is a light blue sky with several white birds flying. The ground is brown and sandy.
