

The board displays four groups of fruit-related cards:

- Yellow Group: A central photo of a green apple with a slice. Two yellow arrows point from the photo to two silhouette cards: a solid black apple and a white outline of an apple.
- Red Group: A central photo of an orange with leaves. Two red arrows point from the photo to two silhouette cards: a solid black orange with leaves and a white outline of an orange with leaves.
- Blue Group: A central photo of a bunch of purple and green grapes. Two blue arrows point from the photo to two silhouette cards: a solid black bunch of grapes and a white outline of a bunch of grapes.
- Green Group: A central photo of a red pomegranate. Two green arrows point from the photo to two silhouette cards: a solid black pomegranate and a white outline of a pomegranate.

At the bottom, a red-bordered tray contains ten silhouette cards for identification, from left to right:

- White outline of a pear.
- Solid black silhouette of a pineapple.
- White outline of a kiwi fruit.
- Solid black silhouette of two round fruits (possibly plums or cherries).
- White outline of a pineapple.
- Solid black silhouette of a pear.
- White outline of a circle.
- Solid black silhouette of two round fruits (possibly plums or cherries).
- White outline of a pear.
- Solid black silhouette of a round fruit (possibly a plum or cherry).

