

A painting of a rainy autumn street. The scene is viewed from a low angle, looking down a long, wet street that recedes into the distance. The street is lined with trees whose leaves are in various stages of autumn, from green to bright orange and red. The sky is filled with heavy, grey clouds, and a soft, golden light from a low sun or moon is visible in the distance, creating a hazy, atmospheric glow. In the foreground, a stream of water flows down the center of the street, reflecting the light and creating ripples. On the left side, a branch with large, vibrant orange and yellow leaves is in sharp focus, partially obscuring the view of the street. The overall mood is melancholic and serene.
