– плоскостной планшет, отражающий экспериментально-исследовательскую деятельность детей.

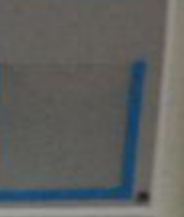

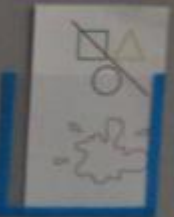

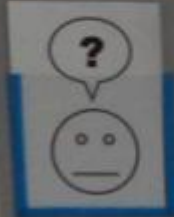

A 3x6 grid of empty rectangular boxes, each outlined in blue, arranged in three rows and six columns on the right side of the board.

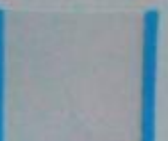

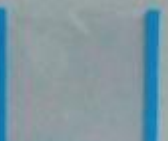

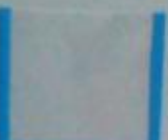

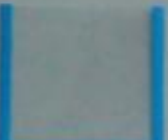

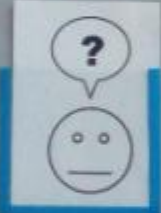

The image shows a grey board with a house-like shape. At the top center is a photo of a pile of white powder. To the right is a circular dial with Russian words and two black arrows pointing to 'KONK' and 'KONTR'. Below these are three rows of cards. The first row has a question mark icon, a photo of powder, and four empty cards. The second row has a hand icon, a photo of powder, a magnifying glass icon, and three empty cards. The third row has a lips icon, a photo of powder, a photo of hands holding a small object, an hourglass icon, and two empty cards.
