

England 1685-1815

James II

William,
Prince of Orange

Mary II of England

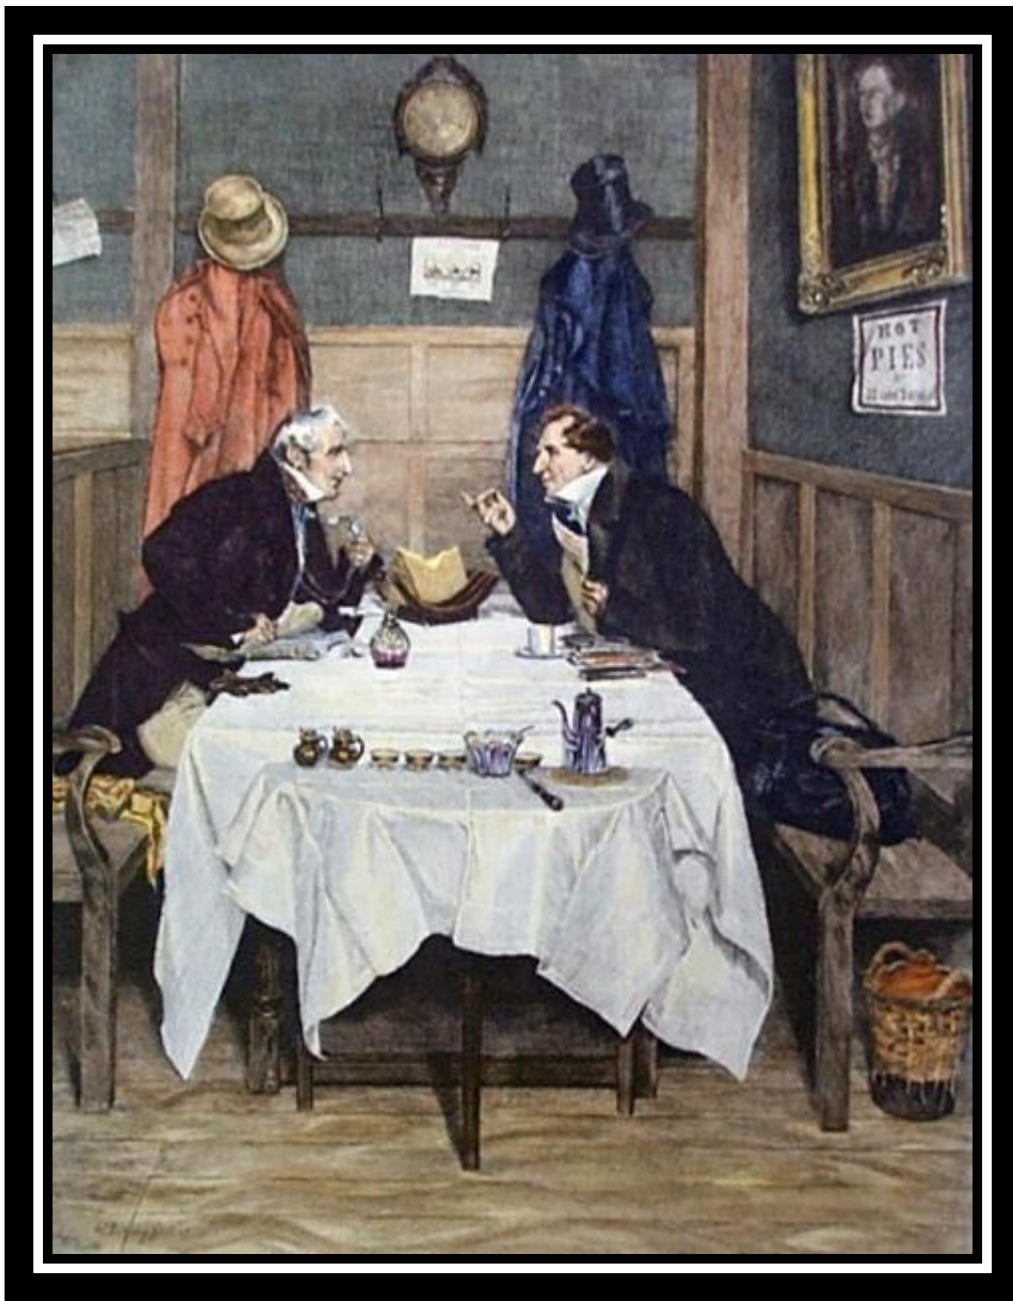

Disruption and Obstruction of Justice at Westminster lawfully fully and lawfully to be observed all the times of the Year. The King had upon the matter one of his Letters in the year of our Lord one thousand five hundred and eighty five these things were contained and known by the names and style of William and Mary King and Justice of Peace of the year present in these words printed in certain Declaration in Witness made by the said Lord and Justice in the words following vizt Whereas the late King James the first by the direction of diverse evil Counsellors Judges and Ministers employed by him did endeavour to subvert and extirpate the Protestant Religion and the Lawes and Liberties of this Kingdom by assuming and exercising a power of dispensing with and suspending of Lawes and the Execution of Lawes without consent of Parliament by committing and prosecuting diverse worthy Persons for humbly petitioning to be exempt from contribution to the said Customs House by Statute and charging to be exempted a Commission under the Great Seale for exercising a Court called the Court of Commissioners for Extraordinary Causes by levying money for and to the use of the Crown by pretence of Decretes for other times and in other manner than the same were granted by Parliament by raising and keeping a standing Army within this Kingdom in time of Peace without consent of Parliament and Quartering Soldiers contrary to Law by raising severall good Subjects being Protestants to be disbanded at the same time with their Arms were taken away and employed contrary to Law by violating the freedom of Election of Members to serve in Parliament by pretending in the Court of Chancery for matters and causes cognizable only in Parliament and by diverse other arbitrary and illegal courses And whereas of late years

The Bill of Rights

Anne, Queen of England

Tories and Whigs

George I

George II

Robert Walpole

George III

War with Napoleon

