Main points

- What is a gap year
- Why is gap year so cool
- My imaginary gap year
- Pros and cons

The gap year offers a break from daily routine and a period of relaxation from the monotony of a scheduled life. A gap year is not a period of mere idleness. It gives student a chance to take a rest and prepare better mentally and emotionally for the challenges of future life in society.

Routine

meaning

A 'gap year' is a period of time, usually an academic year, when a student takes a break from formal education. It is often spent for travelling or working.

My gap year

I think, that best scenario for me would be backpacking through Europe.

Firstly I would like to visit different famous cities and their attraction.

Secondly, I would make new acquaintances with interesting people and gain new experience.

Thirdly, I will be more independent and judicious after my trip.

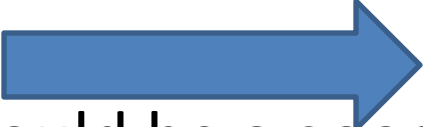

Finally, I would get to know to masterpieces of the peoples thoughts and nature.

Furthermore I can be a German teacher in summer camp. This way, I will improve my English language skills and pass on my experience to campers(children).

Thus, my gap year will be useful for  me and it would be a good way to relax from school.

Pros(adv)

You'll meet new people
You'll have tons of stories
It's a very long holiday

Con(disadv)

You can be homesick:
It's a risk
It could be expensive

in conclusion

Nowadays in the world of fierce competition, it is important for young people to get well-prepared for the challenges in the future. Thus the institution of a gap year can be regarded as a step in the right direction though it has its disadvantages
