Rice in Moscow for Talks

Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice (left) and Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov speak at dinner in Moscow on Wednesday.

Rice flew to the Russian capital Wednesday after a quick and heavily guarded visit to Afghanistan, where she said that the newly democratic nation has come too far to fall back into terrorism and anarchy.

es, Afghanistan has determined enemies and they are ruthless," Rice said following a meeting with Afghan President Hamid Karzai. "They will not succeed in undermining or rolling back the democratic gains of the Afghan people," Rice said.
