Your attention is the Faculty of History and Law.

Faculty of History and Law was opened in 1996, and a year later a general meeting shall elect the dean of the faculty of the candidate of historical sciences, docent SA Goushchin. Began very difficult, painstaking work on the organization of faculty, curriculum guides, creation of special departments and logistics.

Faculty grew rapidly . The faculty has been involved in several conferences. Faculty always felt the support and understanding of the university administration .

For 10 years our department completed 268 full-time students and 153 students of the correspondence department .

In 1999, the first dean of the faculty and his deputy in one of its publications, expressed the hope that over time will produce a young faculty historians university level - researchers and educators . With joy we can say that our hopes are justified ....

Very welcoming faculty gladly met us freshmen!

Here they are members of our faculty.
Adult and junior composition!
