

The World of Travelling

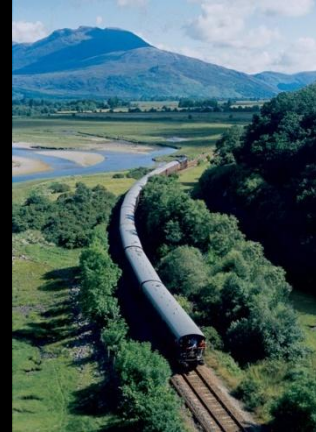

Most people enjoy travelling. They may choose various means of transport and go:

▪ by air

by sea

by train

by car

▪ by boat

on horseback

on a bike

on foot

If you want your journey to be a success it has to be arranged beforehand. You are to choose the most convenient way of getting at your destination; to book a ticket well in advance.

Synonyms:

Travel - moving from one place to another, from one country to another, touring.

Journey - a long trip (usually over land).

Voyage - a sea journey.

Trip - a short journey for pleasure or for a particular purpose.

Allow yourself enough time for:

Finding the right platform (carriage, compartment, cabin)

Going through the customs formalities and passport control

Taking your bulky luggage to the luggage van

Doing some last-minute shopping at the station (airport, duty-free)

These things can make your journey easier or more rewarding:

A season ticket or a travel card

A nice book or an interesting magazine

A hearty talk with your fellow passengers

You can look through the window and admire the picturesque views

These things can spoil the impression of your journey:

- Travel sickness
- Heavy luggage
- Talkative fellow passengers
- Missing your transport
- Bad food
- Bad weather

When you come to another city you are likely to stay in/at:

- a hotel
- a motel
- a hostel
- a boarding house
- a guest house
- bed and breakfast

When you stay in a hotel you

- check in (register) at a hotel
- ask for room, suite for a night, two nights

The room you ask for can be:

single or double

with a shower or a bath

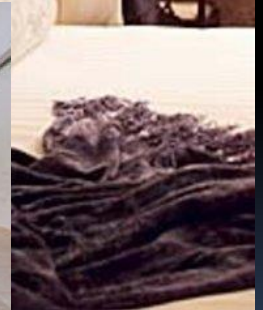

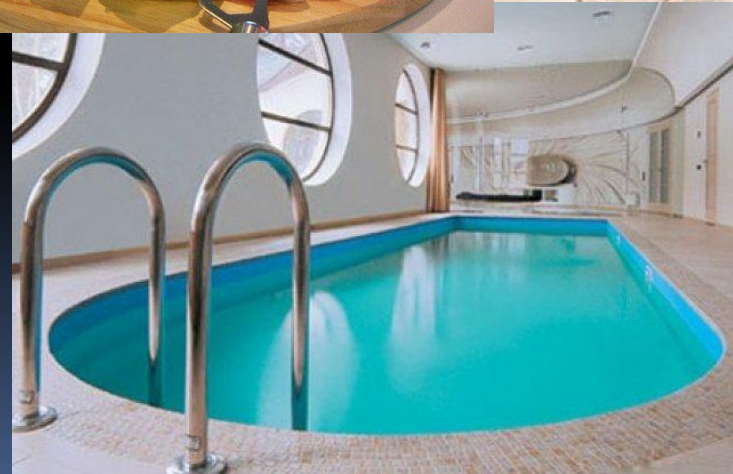

with a view of the sea

with a twin bed, a double bed

The manager of the hotel can show you the room and the facilities available. The price of your room can include service:

- laundry service
- breakfast
- and some facilities

Don't forget to check out at the end of your stay.
