The works of the masters

Practice:

- in 2014, the Director of the organization invited me to the salon, to work in the field of PR and advertising. When I started working, I found out that they have never had any specialist advertising. For the time that I trained in the salon, I helped them with the creation of a new design, creating social media accounts, wrote in a group post, discussed the partnership with the leading website of "Zoon», engaged in the monitoring of competitors, and many others.
