

НЕОБЫЧНЫЕ
ПРОФЕССИИ

CATCHERS THE BALLS

Golf balls often fly away into the bushes or in near standing water. Such balls are lost, and the players are sad about them. However, for special people dive for balls, each ball is money. These people dive, find balls and sell their golf clubs for beginners and collectors.

SVISTUN.

Meet Henry Brady, 58 years, professional svistun. He was speaking in front of people whistling at different frets. According to him, so he tries to reach human hearts, travels a lot and solves various organizational problems.

TESTER WATER SLIDES

Which is better - all day sitting in an office all day or ride on a variety of water slides? There is a man who for yourself this question and decided to do everything to achieve the goal - Tommy Lynch, who has been with First Choice tester water slides. It checks the height, speed, smoothness, traffic safety and splashdown water rides around the world. It seems to be an easy job, but in the words of Tommy a lot of work and notice the tiniest features rides, because of its conclusion depends the security of many people.

