

Oscar Wilde

Made by:
Lera Ovsienko
10 «C»

Oscar Wilde was born in Dublin in 1854. Here he is the boy of 2 years.

Oscar Wilde`s parents` house in Dublin

He was educated at Trinity College in Dublin...

And then at Magdalen College, Oxford

Oscar Wilde at Oxford

Oscar Wilde published his first book in 1881. This was the book “Poems”.

In 1882 Oscar Wilde visited America and had a great success. Americans welcomed him with this picture

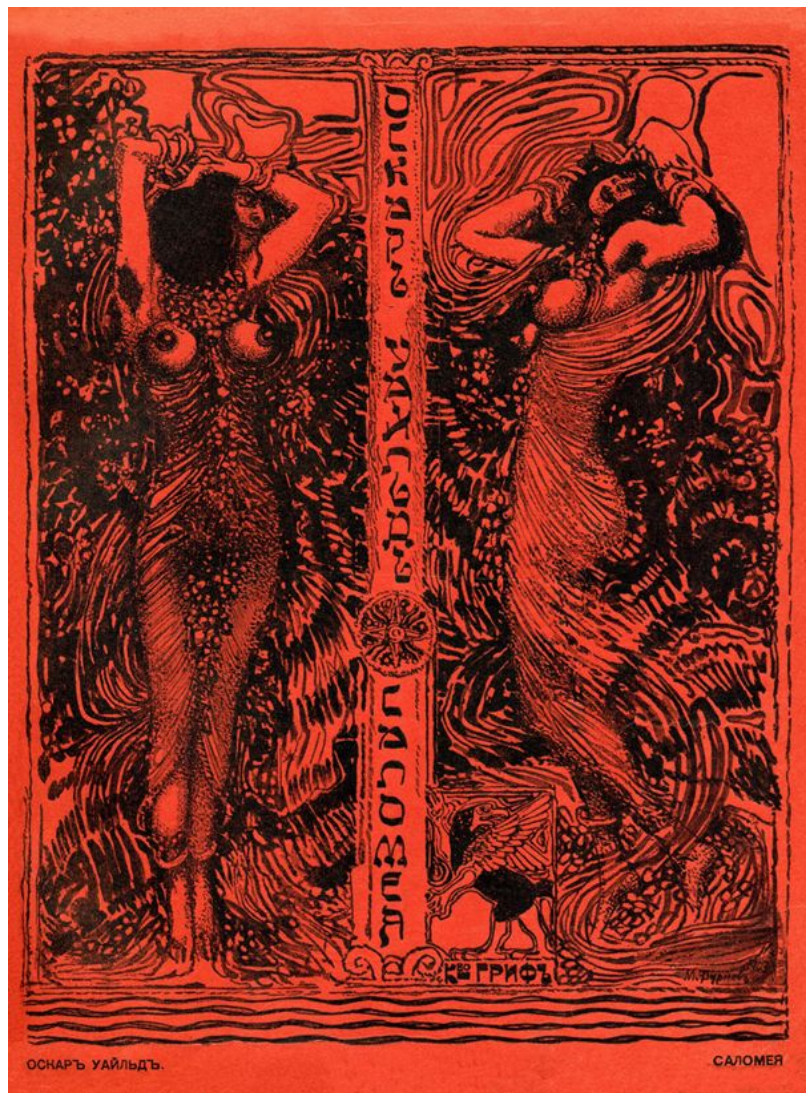

In 1884 Oscar Wilde married Constance Lloyd and they had 2 sons: Cyril and Vyvyan. (Photo: Constance and Cyril, 1890)

People appreciate Oscar Wilde`s creativity. He is the author of many works such as “Lord Arthur Savile`s crime”...

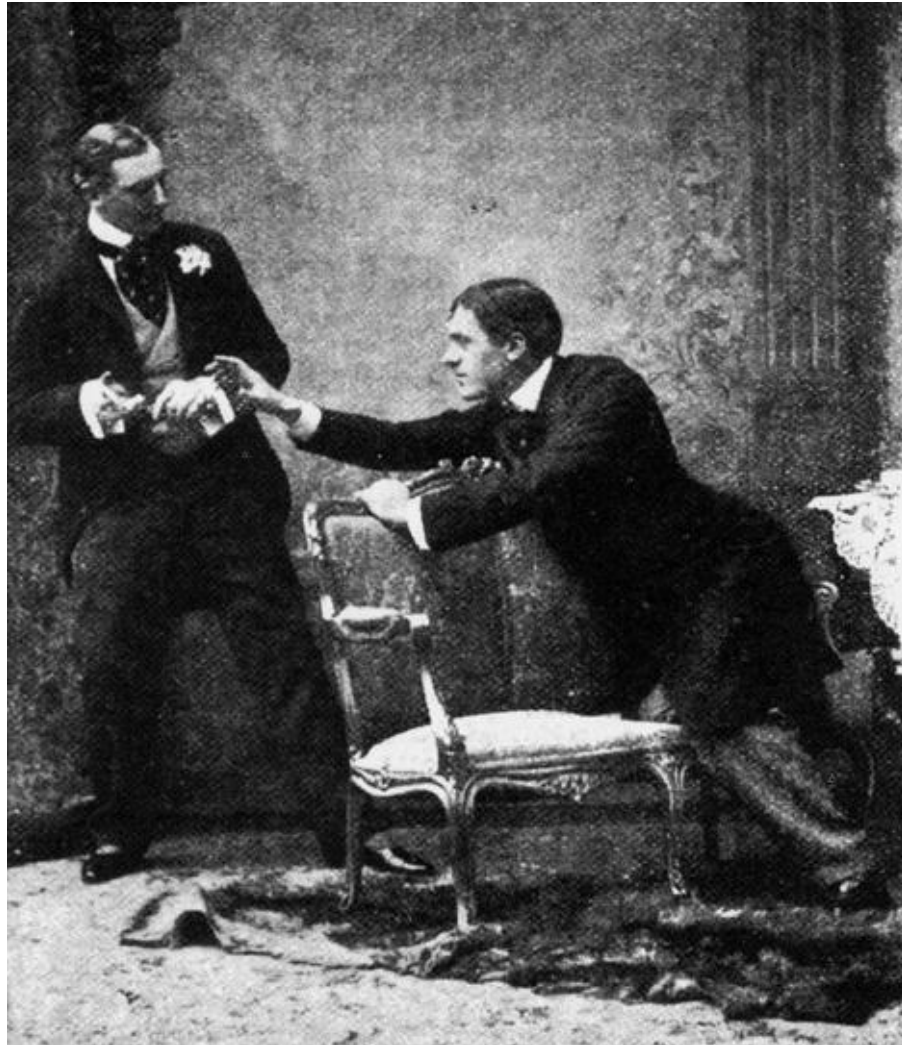

“Salome”...

“An ideal Husband” ...

“The Importance of Being Earnest” and other

The author spent last years of his life in France where he died in 1900.

There are a lot of monuments to him all over the world. There is statue of Oscar Wilde in Merrion Square, Dublin.

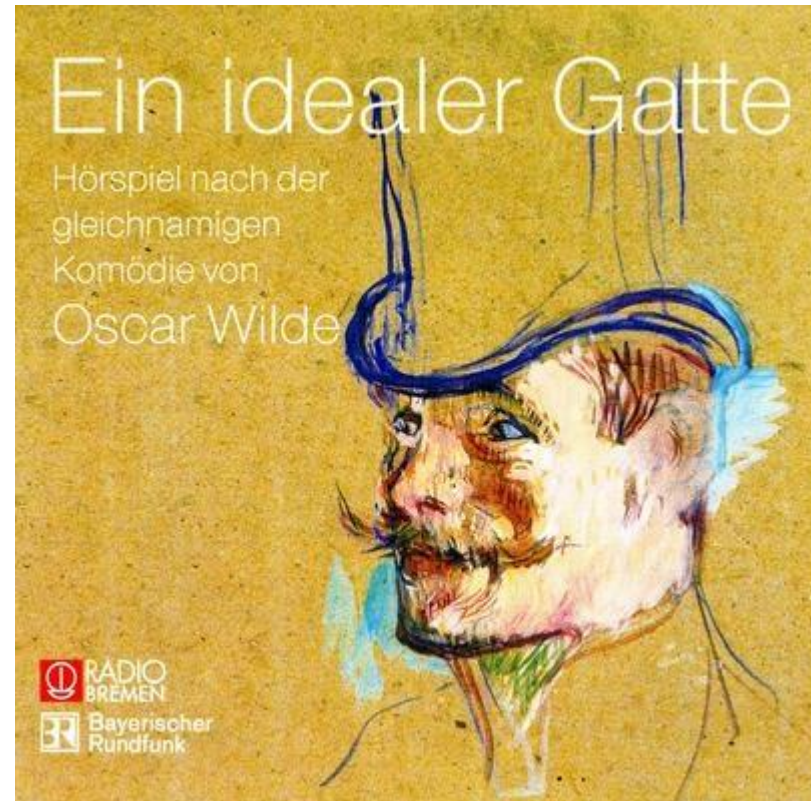

The statue of Oscar Wilde and Eduard Wilde (they were homonyms) in Tartu, Estonia

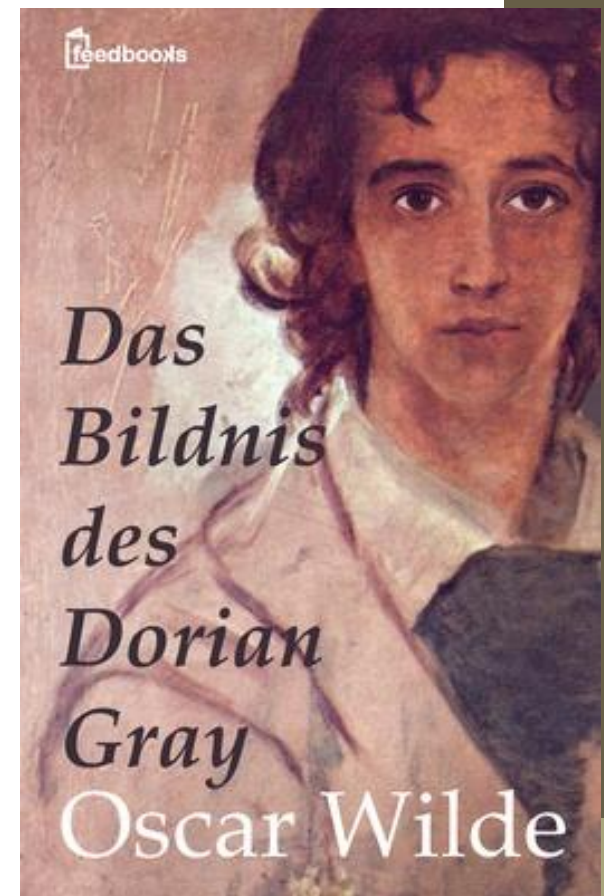

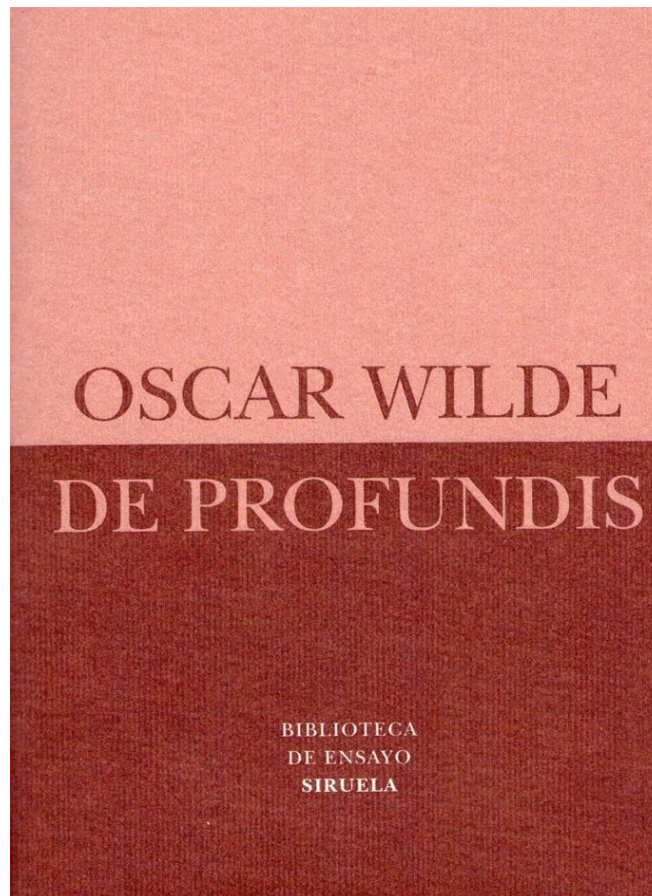

The statue in Surrey, GB

Plays created by Oscar Wilde have been staged in languages almost of the whole world

The author is remembered and honoured all over the world

Thank you for your attention!