

Paris

Paris - France's capital, and the capital of the region of Ile-de-France, whose territory includes Paris and its suburbs. The population of greater Paris, considering the population of the suburbs and satellite cities, according to the data of 2004, 11.5 million people. Thus, Paris is the second largest metropolis after Moscow (along with London, Europe) and about the twentieth in the world. Paris is a huge financial and business centre of Europe.

Eiffel tower

Eiffel tower -
internationally known as the symbol of France. The tower is 324 metres.

Triumphal arch

. The triumphal arch in Paris, is considered the symbol of the city, along with the Eiffel tower and Notre Dame

Versailles

Versailles Palace and Park ensemble in France, the former residence of the French kings in the city of Versailles, now a suburb of Paris, Versailles is associated with many significant events of the French and world history.

Louvre

The Louvre Museum is located in the centre of Paris. The Louvre is one of the oldest museums with a rich history of collecting artistic and historical relics of France, it was all, this Museum can be considered universal.

Notre Dame

Notre Dame Cathedral is located in the heart of the city, on the island of Cite. Notre-Dame was erected over 180 years many architects.. Front of the main facade has a spacious area with which originate all the roads of France.

Disneyland

Perhaps there is no person who has not heard about the Park Disneyland Paris. The tower rose Sleeping beauty castle, humming locomotives, ancient machines, huge puppets Pluto and Mickey mouse. Disneyland includes five theme parks, grouped around the Sleeping beauty castle, with many attractions and entertainment. Here wants to visit every child!

