A young girl with brown hair is sitting on a white, fluffy rug. She is wearing a white, sleeveless dress with a lace collar and a small floral brooch on the chest. She also wears a white headscarf with lace trim and small dark spots. She has her hands clasped in her lap and is smiling slightly. The background is a light-colored wall with a repeating floral pattern of yellow flowers and green leaves. To the right, a green plant with large leaves is partially visible.
