A cartoon illustration of a boy and a girl. The boy is at the top left, with blonde hair, a wide open mouth, and his arms raised in excitement. The girl is at the bottom left, also with blonde hair, looking up with a curious expression. The background is a repeating pattern of question marks in a grid of light green and light orange squares. A decorative border on the right side consists of a vertical strip of colorful squares (blue, green, orange, pink) with question marks inside circles.
