There is an opinion that in ancient times there was a horoscope (totemic yearbook) in Russia . He vividly reflected, and still reflects, our unity with nature.

A distinctive feature of the Old Slavonic horoscope is a cycle of 16 years, and the fact that the year, if you follow this annals, does not begin in winter, but in March, on the day of the vernal equinox.

Each year, and a person born in this year, has its own totem (patron).

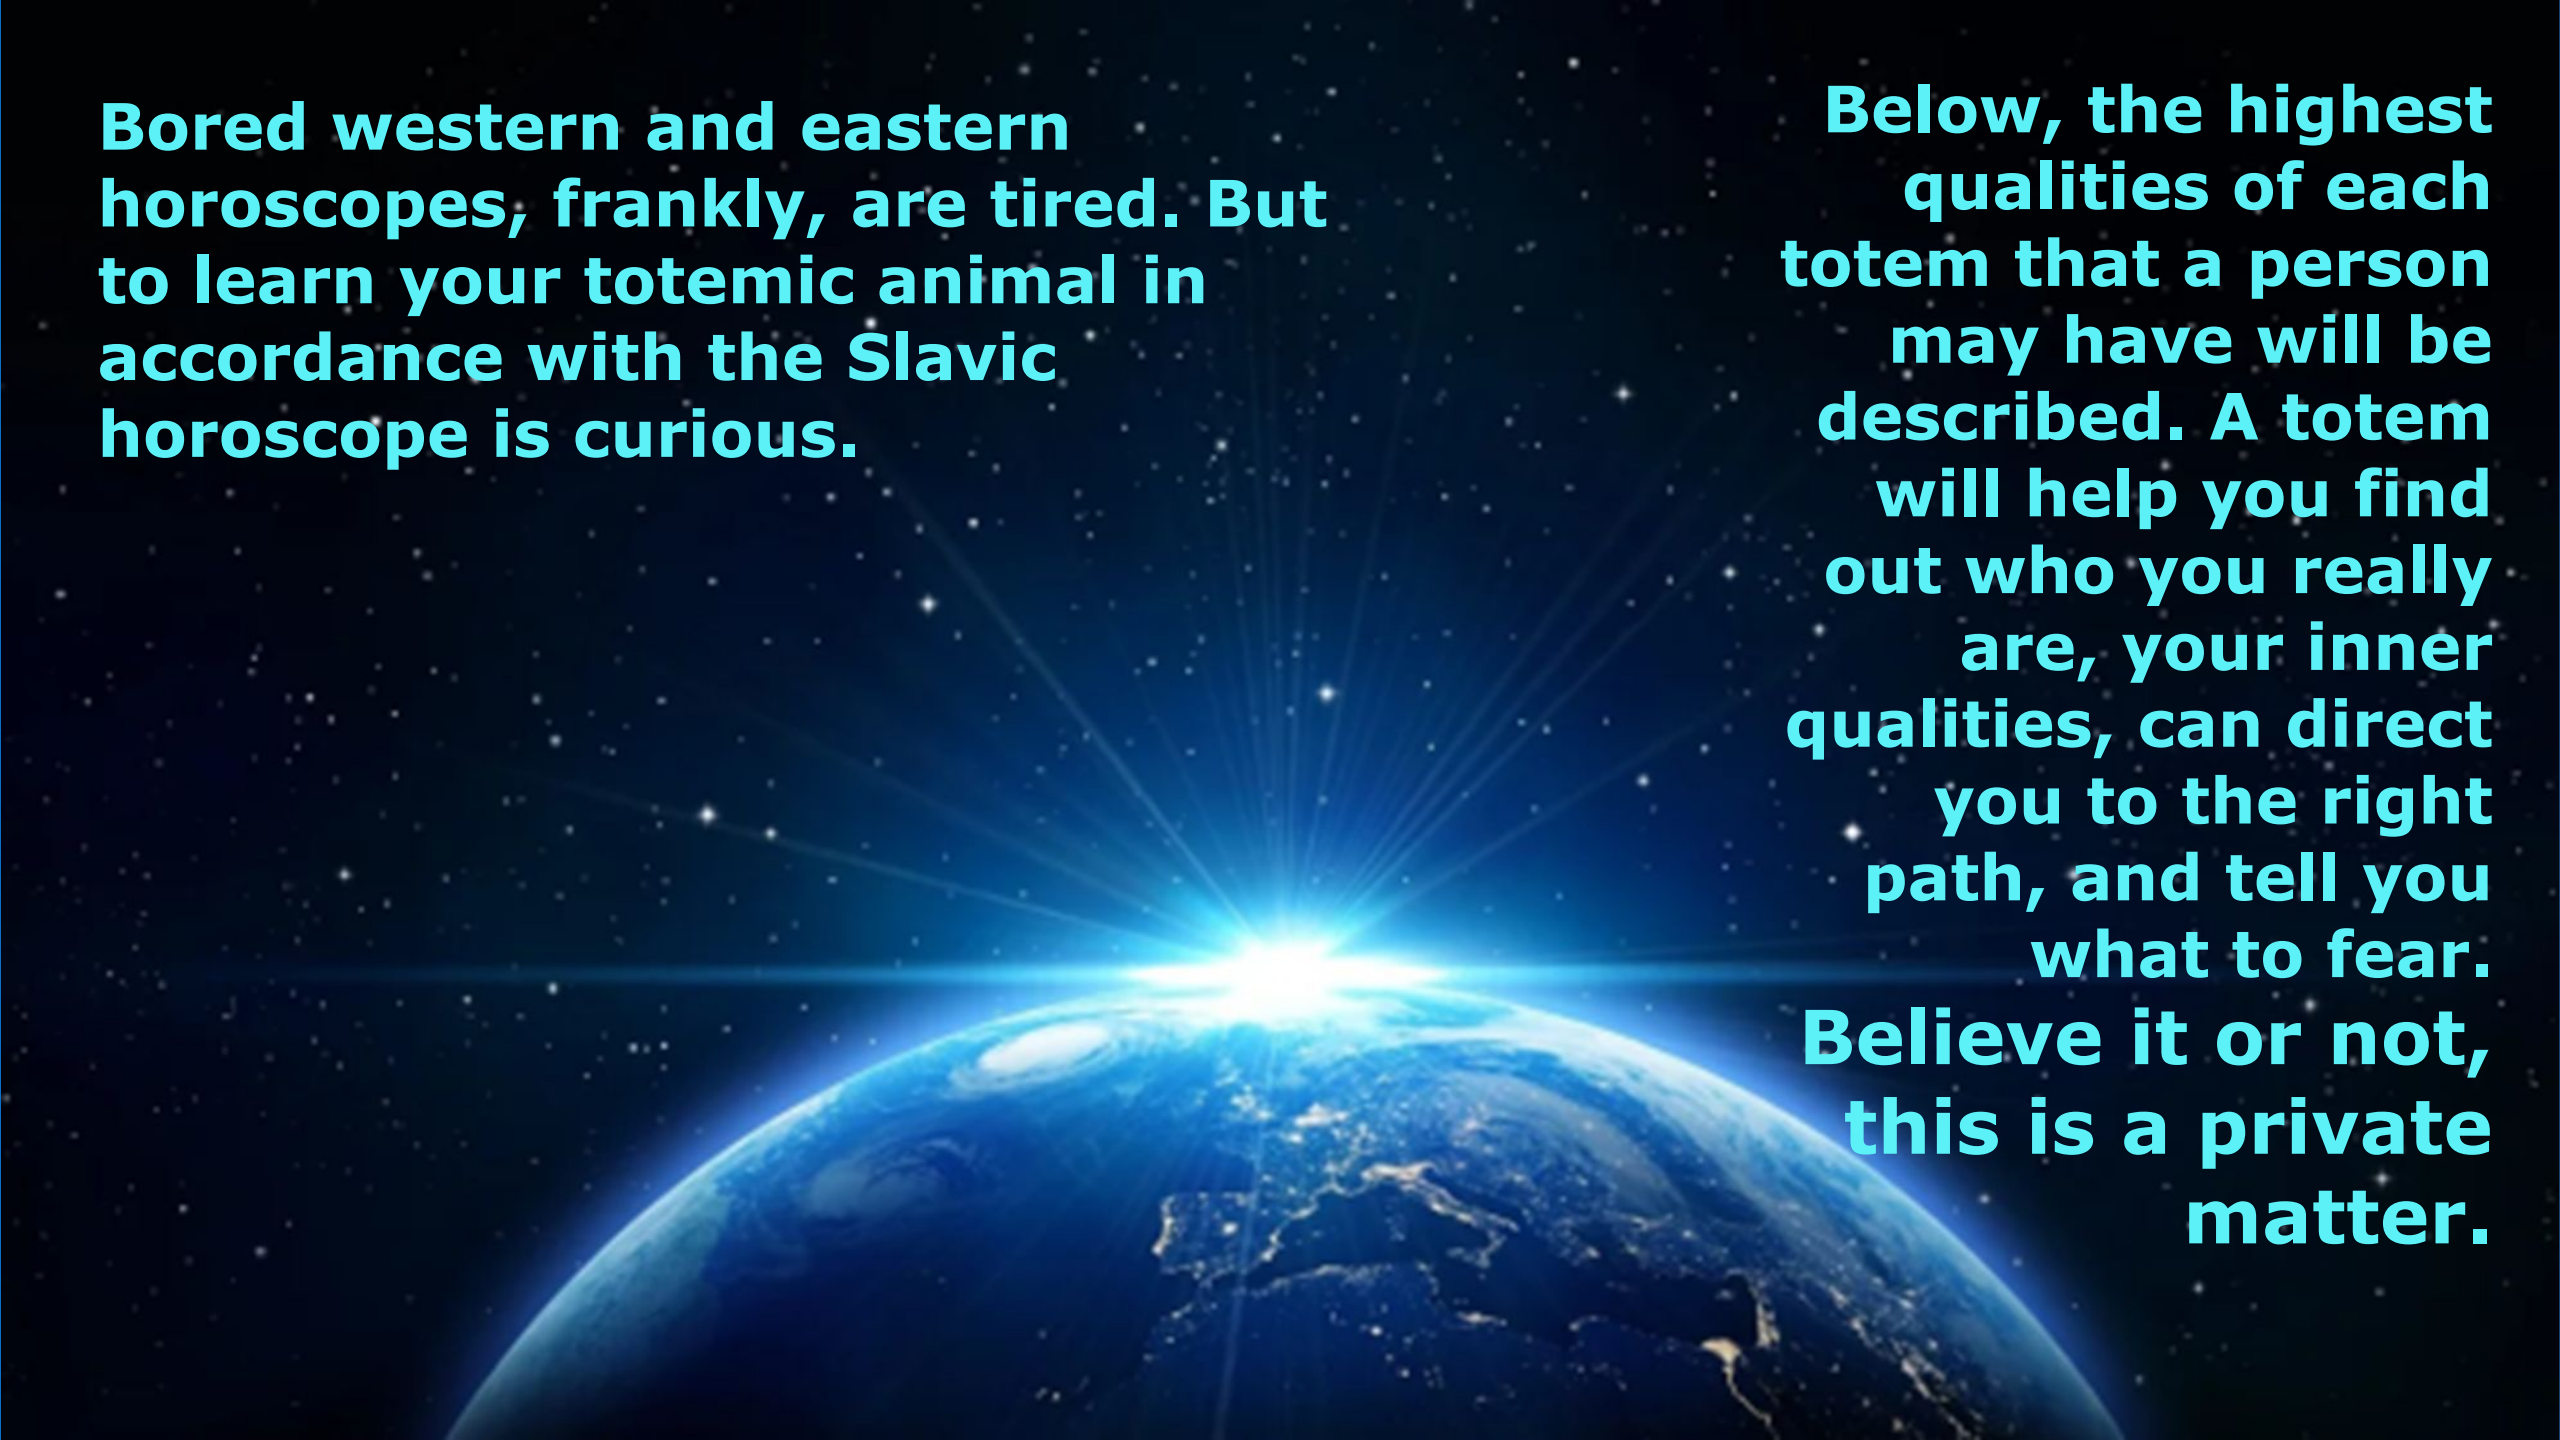

There are 16 totems in total: Dark Sox, Stinging Hornet, Lurking Fierce, Fire War, Pearl Pike, Bearded Toad, Wild Boar, White Eagle Owl, Hissing Already, Crouching Foxes, Curled Hedgehog, Soaring Eagle, Spinning Misgiru, Screaming Rooster, Crybug, Fire horse.

Beautiful and poetic, right?

In general, the totem horoscope of animals is more correctly called not a horoscope, but a yearbook.
More correctly - a chronicle.

But the general meaning will not change from this,
and the component
will remain the same: a sixteen-year
cycle, each year it
patronizes its own animal, its own totem, which, like in
any horoscopes,
affects the character
born of people
in this year.

Bored western and eastern horoscopes, frankly, are tired. But to learn your totemic animal in accordance with the Slavic horoscope is curious.

Below, the highest qualities of each totem that a person may have will be described. A totem will help you find out who you really are, your inner qualities, can direct you to the right path, and tell you what to fear. Believe it or not, this is a private matter.

Let's find out your year and your totem.

Темный Сох или
Лось
(1912, 1948, 1944,
1960, 1976, 1992,
2008)

Moose totem is strength of spirit, character, strength, charisma, swiftness and pride. People born under the auspices of this totem are vibrant and active individuals. They can be leaders, and they do great. With their confidence, these people literally infect others.

Moose people are engaged in training and updating, they want and can carry knowledge to the world. Thanks to their totem, they are easily self-fulfilling, climb the career ladder and, in general, achieve any set goals.

Жалящий Шершень (1929, 1945, 1961, 1977, 1993, 2009)

People born under the Hornet totem are active and purposeful, thrifty, they have developed intuition and a good memory from birth, they know how to set goals and achieve them. At all costs, sometimes even bypassing some moral principles. Terrible owners and jealous: they will not give up their own, and they can put it on someone else's eye.

From the side, hornets can look fussy, they are very noisy, like their totem. But this is an appearance, punctuality, zeal and huge organizational talents are hidden behind such an appearance. All this helps them to be good owners and manage finances wisely.

Притаившийся Лют или Волк (1930, 1946, 1962, 1978, 1994, 2010)

The Slavic horoscope claims that people born in the year of the Wolf are people of great strength and grace at the same time: outwardly soft and relaxed, at the right time they can quickly and easily gather and concentrate. These are dramatic changes in a short time.

Wolves possess some kind of magnetism, attract others to themselves. They are very generous and kind, patient. But they will not allow anyone to limit their freedom! Meanwhile, very loyal to the family. They love order, both in business and in the house. And they can competently communicate and manage others.

Огненная Векша или Белка (1931, 1947,
