My friend Alice

- My friend got really lucky. She's going to Turkey with her family for 2 weeks and then she is going straight to UK, where she will spend month with her pen friend. But the problem is she doesn't speak very English.

Check-in

- The next stage takes place in the second hall of the airport. One of the many boards you need to find your flight number and number of the rack on which to register. To approach it, to defend the place and stretch the airport staff passport and ticket, and if you have e-tickets, the only passport. In return, you will be given a boarding pass with seat numbers, which, incidentally, can be selected. However, not all airlines offer this opportunity.

Luggage transportation

- Here although comes checking in. After another check to him attached the card number and send to the cargo bay. By the way, next to the reception she can always find a machine for packing luggage, in which it is wrapped with transparent film. This will be useful if you are afraid that the bag may stain or open during transport.
- It is important to remember that the cabin is forbidden to take sharp objects, liquids in containers of more than 100 milliliters, creams and sprays in opaque bottles. All that you bought in DutyFree, we can take into the cabin only if the integrity of the package.

Rules of inspection

- The next stage –to view her hand luggage, passport control and personal inspection. With the passage of the control you need to put on the X-ray belt bag, put the same watch, belt, metal jewelry and phone, and then step into the cabin inspection. At some airports, also require to remove your shoes, so it is advisable to get advance overshoes. Scanning and inspection occupy no more than a minute, and then, if all goes well, you get into the waiting room.

Waiting room and Duty Free

- If you arrived at the airport on time, then you have to landing is about an hour. Free time can be spent usefully. In waiting rooms are shops Duty Free, where you can buy perfume, some food and accessories at a substantial discount. By the way, once in the waiting room, it is necessary to navigate and select a place closer to the desired output. Information about his room, usually posted on the electronic scoreboard and duplicated in several languages on the speakerphone.

Potential issues

There are some important rules:

1. Do not try to smuggle prohibited items in checked baggage, in the hope that no one will pay attention;
2. do not try to joke with customs or be rude to them - these people are able to cancel your vacation in one word;
3. behave calmly and appropriately, without drawing attention to themselves;
4. if you get lost, please contact any staff of the airport, and will help you to solve all problems.
5. Don't talk with strange persons
6. Beware strange bags and objects, if you find something strange contact any staff of the airport

In the UK

- When the plane landed at the airport of destination above procedure of registration of passengers, also passes in the opposite order.
  1. Passport control.
  2. Customs control.
  3. Baggage returning.Passport control and customs do not differ from the control of the airport of departure. You can find your luggage on the conveyor belt baggage claim. Pick up the luggage, you can safely leave the airport building.

Problem: nobody met her

- Alice wanted to phone to the host family. She need to find telephone box. But when Alice found it followed a new problem. It accept only coins. But she spent her cash on food in Duty Free. That's why she need to find a cash machine to withdraw money from her card. Unlucky She knew nothing about how to do it. She asked airport staff for help. It was fantastic that staff, which she asked for help, was Russian.

Happy end

- As a result Alice phoned host family and they said that they are standing near the airport now. They just got stuck in traffic.
