

The biggest cities of the world

Shanghai

- Shanghai - China's largest city and one of the largest cities in the world, located in the Yangtze River Delta. An important financial and cultural center of the country, as well as the world's largest sea port.

Istanbul

- Istanbul - Turkey's largest city and one of the largest cities in the world, a seaport, a major industrial and commercial and cultural center of Turkey. The former capital of the Roman, Byzantine and Ottoman empires. Located on the shores of the Bosphorus Strait.

Mumbai

- Mumbai - India's most populous city. Is a city of great contrasts, where luxury and wealth side by side with poverty. One of the most important economic and cultural centers of India.

Tokyo

- Tokyo (Jap. "Eastern Capital") - the capital of Japan, its administrative, financial, cultural, commercial and political center. Located in the southeastern part of the island of Honshu, on the Kanto plain in the Bay of Tokyo Bay Pacific

Karachi

- Karachi - a port city in the south of Pakistan, the country's largest city and one of the largest cities in the world. This is the main financial, banking, industrial and commercial center of Pakistan.

Buenos - Aires

- Buenos Aires (Spanish. Ciudad de la Santísima Trinidad y Puerto de Nuestra Señora de Santa María de los Buenos Aires, letters. "The City of the Holy Trinity and Port of Our Lady Saint Mary of Good Winds") - the capital of Argentina, the administrative, cultural and economic center the country and one of the largest cities in South America.

Delhi

- Delhi - metropolis of India, which has the status of a Union territory (National Capital Territory of Delhi). Located in northern India on the banks of river Yamuna.

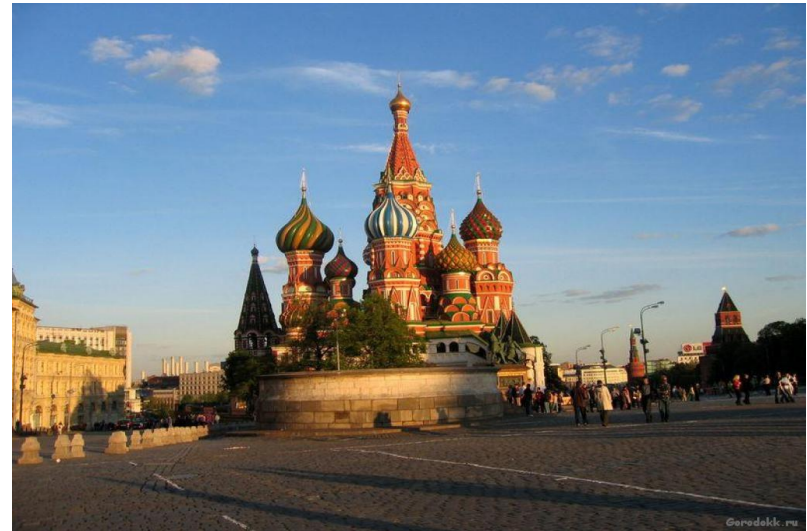

Manila

- Manila - the largest city in the Philippines, economic, political and cultural center, the state capital.

MOSCOW

- Moscow - the capital of the Russian Federation, federal city, the administrative center of the Central Federal District and the center of the Moscow region. The largest city by population in Russia. One of the ten largest cities in the world.

San - Paulo

- Sao Paulo - a city in south-eastern Brazil, the capital of the eponymous state. Located in the valley of the river Tiete, 70 km from the Atlantic coast.

