

Sir Stanly
Spencer
1891-1959

Kondratyev Vladimir 10A

Stanly Stanley Spencer was a British painter. Spencer studied at the Slade School of Art in London. When he was a student, he began to write paintings with biblical theme. Paint biblical/religious pictures

During the World War I Spencer served as a medic in Macedonia medical corps. After the war he created paintings with scenes from his own military experience.

In February 1927 Spencer held his first one-man exhibition solo show/ exhibition at the Goupil Gallery. The centre piece of the exhibition was The Resurrection, Cookham which received rave reviews in the British press.

*Swan Upping
at Cookham (1915–19)*

Christ in the Wilderness
- The Hen

*Shipbuilding on the Clyde,
The Furnaces*

(1945)

His last painting was his self-portrait (1951), then in 1959 he died of cancer.

Thank you for attantion!

Sources:

- <http://www.bibliotekar.ru/slovar-impr4/21.htm>
- https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Stanley\_Spencer
- <http://classic-online.ru/ru/art/painter/Spencer/8229>