

Subculture Anime

Created by tmx73

WALLPAPER BY SHADE

What is Anime?

- ❑ Anime – it is animated image created in Japan.
- ❑ Anime has no ideology, but it is well represented by a typical slang, which consists of Japanese words.

The main directions

1. Drawing.

2. Cosplay

3. Writing texts

Drawing

□ Painting is executed in the Japanese manga style, which translates into Russian as “light sketch”

Cosplay

□ Cosplay is a complete recreation of the necessary character, including copying the costume, manners, speech, hairstyle and so on

Who are AnimeFans?

- ❑ The widest audience were young people aged 12-18 years (In age when the imagination helps to reconstruct the required image).
- ❑ AnimeFans trying to recreate in real life what they saw on the screen.
- ❑ AnimeFans are ordinary people does not stand out from the crowd.
- ❑ AnimeFans not rebelling against society

In conclusion

Today it has become a fashionable trend. Critics say about the isolations of talent in to another culture. On the other hand the representatives of anime are not satisfied with public protests and political unrest. They just stay on their world

