

THE ANALYSIS OF THE WORD “JOIN”

Sheinova Marina, group 112

I will wait there till you join us.

GRAMMATICAL CHARACTERISTICS:

- Notional verb
- Transitive verb
- Regular verb

LEXICAL CHARACTERISTICS:

□ This is a polysemantic word.

1) It's primary meaning is to put two things together.

(соединять)

E.G Where do the two streams join?

2) The secondary meaning is to unite to form one entity or group ( входить в компанию)

E. G If I were you, I should join this club.

3) The thirdly meaning is to unite with somebody (присоединяться к )

E. G We'll join you in a few minutes.

4) do something together [intransitive and transitive] to do something together with someone else, or as a group

□ join somebody for something

e.g. I invited them to join us for a glass of wine.

□ join (with) somebody in doing something

e.g. I'm sure you'll all join me in thanking today's speaker.

□ join (with) somebody to do something

e.g. Parents have joined with health experts to produce a video for bereaved families.

□ join together

e.g. Three police forces have joined together to buy a helicopter.

5) connect

- a) [transitive] to connect or fasten things together:

e.g. Join the two pieces of wood with strong glue.

- join something to something

e.g. The island is joined to the mainland by a causeway.

- b) [intransitive and transitive] if two roads, rivers etc join, they come together and become connected at a particular point:

e.g. Finally we arrived at Dartmouth, where the River Dart joins the sea.

- the point where the two roads join

6) join a queue to go and stand at the end of a line of people
e.g. He went in and joined the queue for the toilets.

Set-phrases

- join somebody for something

e.g. I invited them to join us for a glass of wine.

- join (with) somebody in doing something

e.g. I'm sure you'll all join me in thanking today's speaker.

- join (with) somebody to do something

e.g. Parents have joined with teacher to discuss some problems

- join together

e.g. Three police forces have joined together to buy a helicopter.

be joined in marriage=to be married

VERB-ADVERB COMBINATIONS

- To join up with smb/smth = to connect with smb

e.g. They joined up with local environmentalists

- To join in = support (someone) in an activity

e.g. I am sure you will join me in wishing him every success.

SYNONYMS:

- Unite
- Connect
- Link
- Combine
- Associate
- Attach

ANTONYMS:

- Separate
- Disjoin
- Demit

SET PHRASES & IDIOMS

□ join battle

e.g. the armies of the north and south joined battle

□ join hands

e.g. now join hands in a circle

DERIVATIVES:

□ joinable

EXERCISES

- They _____ with local environmentalists
  - The islands are _____ a bridge.
  - The singer started alone but soon the whole audience _____.
  - I invited them to _____ us ___ a glass of wine.
  - Three families have _____ to buy a house
  - Где соединяются эти две дороги?
  - Два человека затеяли драку друг с другом.
  - Соедините руки вместе.
-

- They joined up with local environmentalists
  - The islands are joined by a bridge.
  - The singer started alone but soon the whole audience joined in.
  - I invited them to join us for a glass of wine.
  - Three families have joined together to buy a house
  - Where do the two roads join?
  - Two people joined battle between each other.
  - Join your hands together.
- 