If you use Reported Speech there are mostly two main differences. The introductory sentence in Reported Speech can be in the Present or in the Past. If the introductory sentence is in the Simple Present, there is no backshift of tenses.

Direct Speech:

Susan: “Mary works in an office.”

Reported Speech:

Introductory sentence in the Simple Present → Susan says (that)* Mary works in an office.

Introductory sentence in the Simple Past → Susan said (that)* Mary worked in an office.

3. Change of persons/pronouns

If there is a pronoun in Direct Speech, it has possibly to be changed in Reported Speech, depending on the situation.

Direct Speech → Susan: “I work in an office.”

Reported Speech → Susan said (that)* she worked in an office.

Here I is changed to she.

Simple Past	Past Perfect

Past Perfect
will	would
Progressive forms

5. Conversion of expressions of time and place

If there is an expression of time/place in the sentence, it may be changed, depending on the situation.
