

The Highlands

Выполнил:

Учащийся 7А класса
Средней школы № 356

Скорик

Кирилл

About the Highlands

The Highlands is an inspiring region of magnificent mountains, enchanting lochs and sandy beaches. Discover wonderful wildlife and landscapes such as Ben Nevis and Loch Ness.

Area overview

The Highlands, in the far north of Scotland, is made up of six smaller regions. This region is great for outdoor activities and wildlife. There are also a variety of attractions and much great scenery to explore from mountains to beaches, rivers to islands.

The Cairngorms National Park

It is Britain's largest National Park.

Towns and villages in the Highlands

History of the Highlands

The Picts were the indigenous people of the north

Castles

Built as palaces and places of safety, each castle has a unique history stretching back, in some cases, more than 1,000 years.

Источники информации

•

<http://www.visitscotland.com>

Questions:

1. Where is the Highlands?
2. What would you like to explore there?
3. Why were the castles built?
4. Who lived there in the old times?

