MODS & ROCKERS

Are you a mod -or a rocker?

SITTING on the fence is out these days; if you're under 25 you must be either a mod (add "ernist" when consulting a dictionary) or a rocker.

Perhaps you haven't decided where your allegiance lies. Or, maybe, you don't belong to either camp. In that case you are a fogey, old or otherwise.

Here, then, is everyman's guide to mods, rockers and mids (they are neither one thing nor the other—a bit of a mixture). All you have to do is to decide which of the answers (a, b or c) is most applicable to you. The handy reference chart at the foot of the page will tell you in a flash whether you are with it, near it or past it.

1. Do you (a) ride a scooter? (b) ride a motor bike? (c) drive a car?
2. When riding do you wear (a) a parka with fur-trimmed hood? (b) a leather jacket? (c) stormcoat and waders?
3. Is your machine adorned with (a) fox tails? (b) dolphin fairing and dropped bars? (c) legshields?
4. Is your headgear (a) an Andy cap? (b) a space helmet? (c) nothing?
5. Are your trousers (a) pink, half-mast, 15in wide? (b) jeans, blue 12in wide? (c) bags, Oxford, 22in wide?
6. Do you like the Beatles? (a and b) Yes; (c) What?
7. Do you comb your hair (a) sometimes? (b) often? (c) none to comb?
8. Is your footwear (a) soft creepers, Cuban boots or baseball boots? (b) zip-back riding boots or widepickers? (c) sensible?
9. Is your favourite shirt (a) polka-dot with high tab collar? (b) black? (c) white?
10. Do you drink (a) Coke? (b) coffee? (c) beer?

Haircut for rockers... and haircut for mods

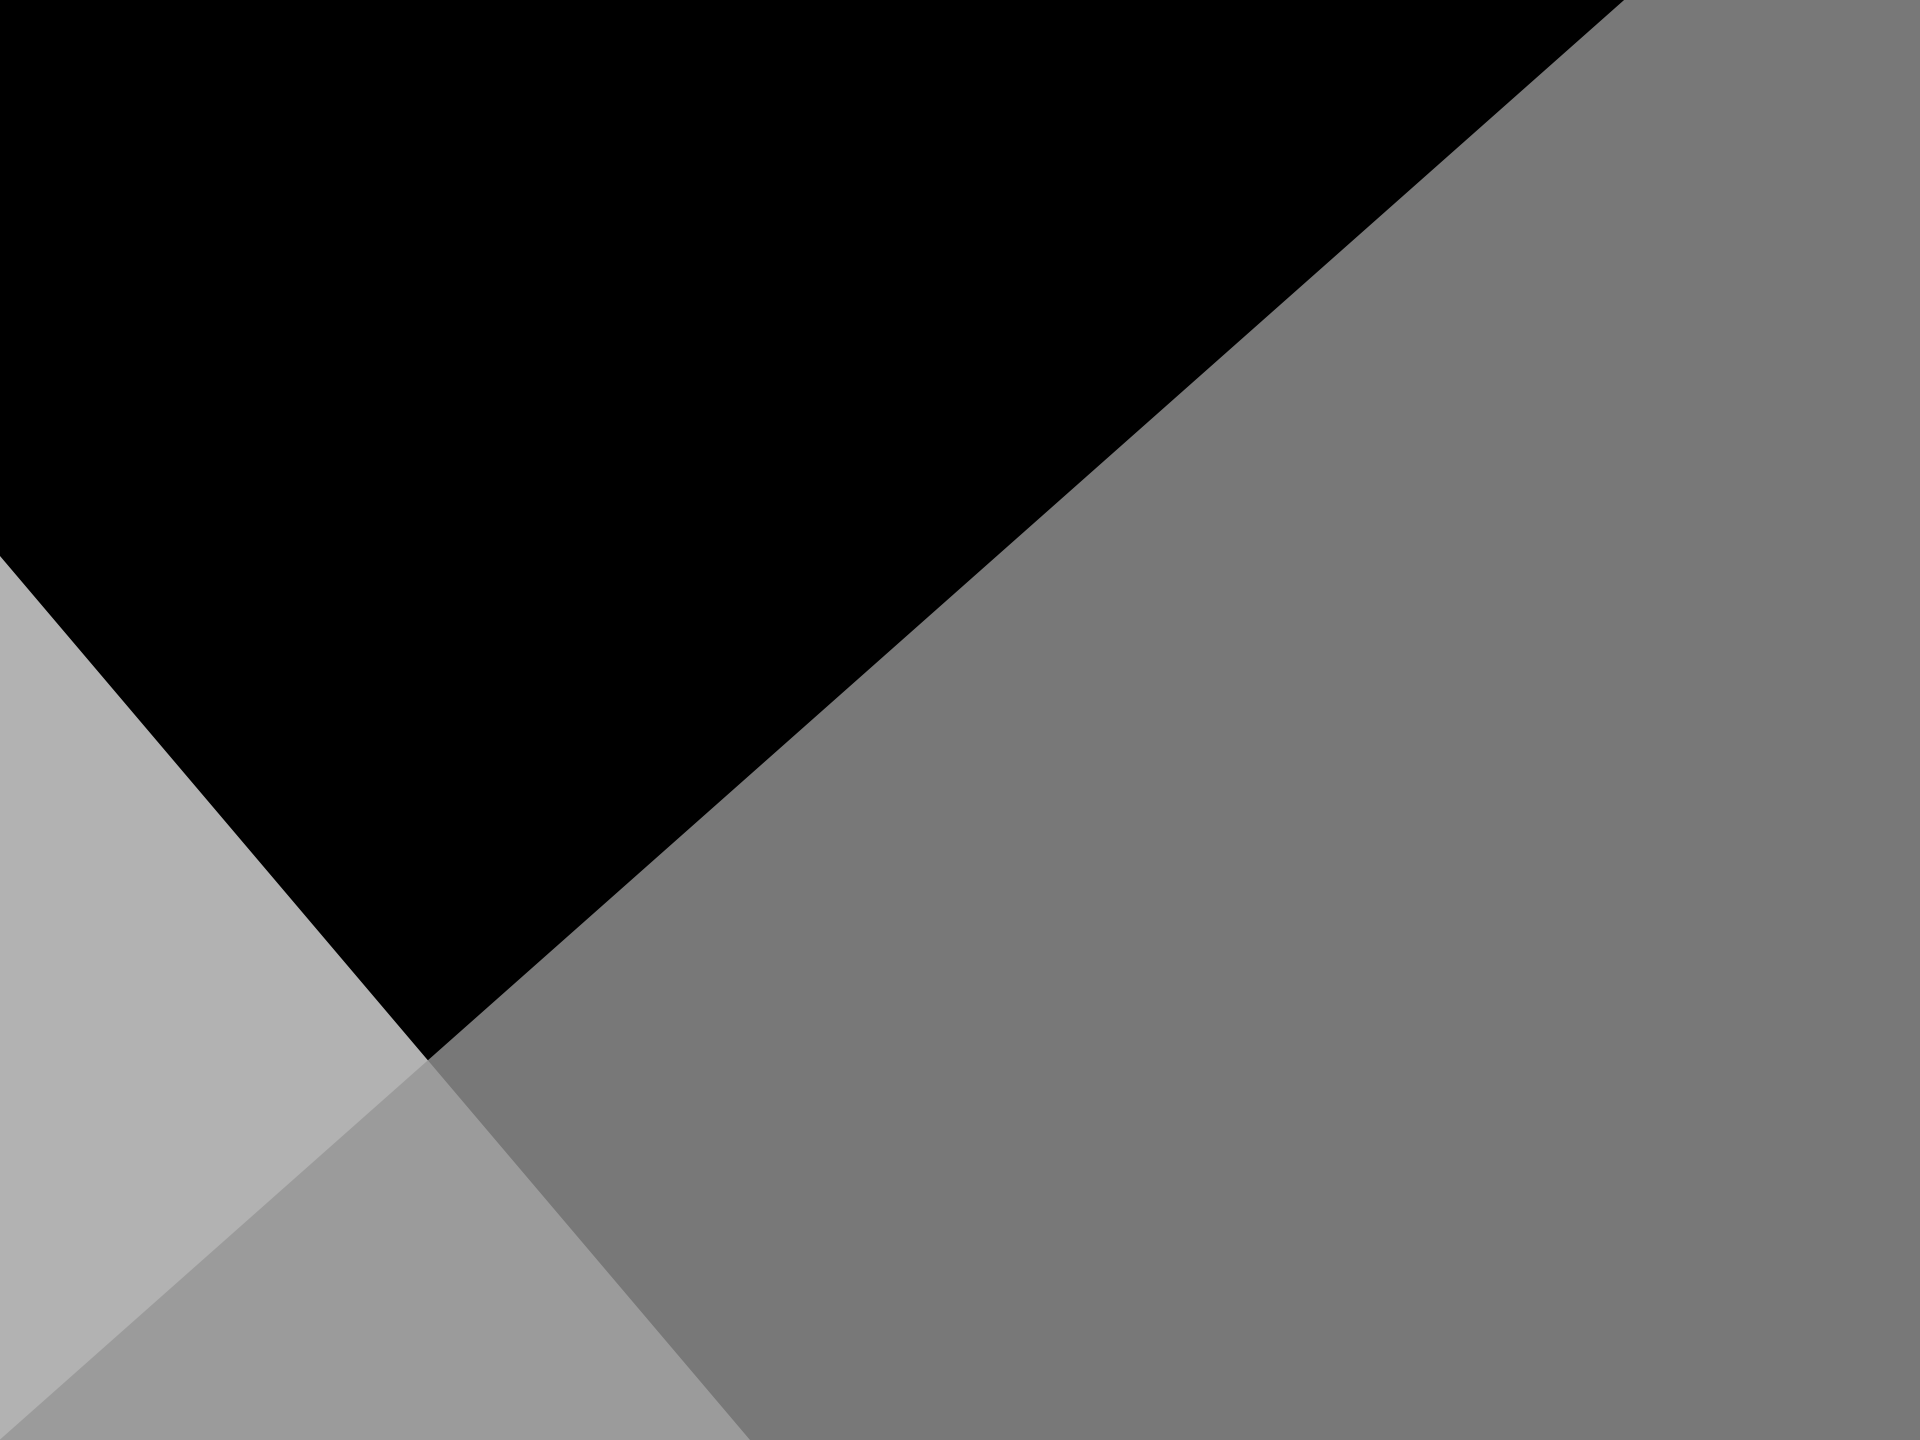

Rocker? Undoubtedly—a bit far-fetched all the same. Anyway, Yogi and Fred Flintstone look quite content with their lot
