

The one day in London

I always dream to go to the London. It's the one of amazing town on the world. There are a huge amount of ancient castles, beautiful buildings and exciting views here. Soon, I will be there.

- The first, I'm planning to go to the Big Ben. The tower is officially known as the Elizabeth Tower (previously called the Clock Tower or St Stephen's Tower)

- After that, I'm going to see the Tower Bridge. The bridge crosses the River Thames close to the Tower of London and has become an iconic symbol of London.

- Also, I want to visit the Buckingham Palace. It's the London residence and principal workplace of the reigning monarch of the United Kingdom

- The end, I'm driving on a double-decker bus and enjoying the wonderful views of town.
