

The Palace of Peace and Accord

○ The Palace of Peace and Accord - a pyramid, created by the architect Sir Norman Foster in Astana, capital of Kazakhstan, specifically for "Congress of leaders of world and traditional religions." Pyramid - the center of religious and religious tolerance. Holds a concert hall with 1500seats.

- The construction of the pyramid was completed in 2006, the concert hall was opened Montserrat Caballe. At the base - a square with a side of 61.80339887 meters, height - also 61.80339887 meters, which corresponds to the principles of "Fibonacci Golden Ratio."

- Hall "Cheops Atrium", covering an area of more than 2 thousand sq.m. consisting of 4 adjoining galleries, ready to accommodate more than 1,000 guests at the same time. In the gallery of the hall is "Astana Master Plan 2030"

