Practice

When I was young, my family and I always went to my grandmother's house for Thanksgiving every year. We saw my uncles, aunts, and cousins. We always ate a lot of food and talked about what everyone did at home. Most of my family lived in different states, and we did not see each other often.

We always played cards with my grandmother. Like most families, we also watched American football on television.

My grandmother told me about what her life was like when she was younger.

What did you do with your family when you were young?
