

The Port of London

The Port location of London

- The Port of London is situated on the river Thames. Its position: latitude: $51^{\circ}37'00''\text{N}$, longitude: $00^{\circ}57'19''\text{E}$.

freight turnover

Annual turnover exceeding 50 million tons

import and export the port

London passes through 40-50% of total imports of Great Britain and about 25% of exports

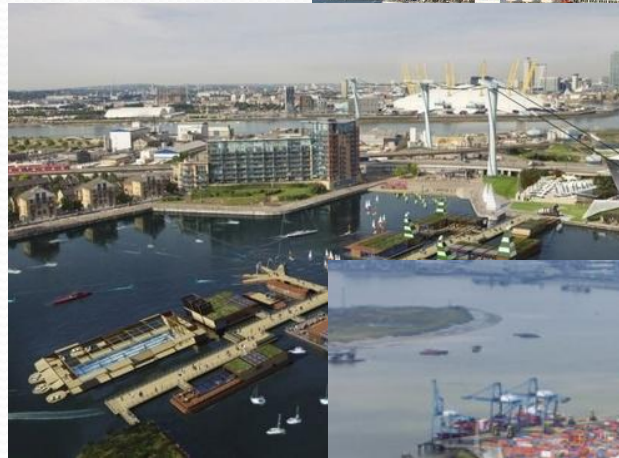

Port of London docks

1. The India and Mil-wall Docks on the left bank of the Thames

2. The Royal Docks

3. Tilbury Docks

The port equipment of London

The Port of London has terminals, berths, passenger landing stage, cargo and repair jetties.

Pilotage

Pilotage is compulsory. Ships requiring the services of a pilot must make a notification 24 hours in advance.

Thank you for your attention

