А. Пластов. «Фашист пролетел»,
1942 г.

Константин Михайлович Симонов

1915-1979

Родился в 1915г. в Петрограде (сейчас - Санкт-Петербург), но все детство провел в далеких военных городках, так как отчим был военным, и семья часто переезжала. Своего родного отца так и не увидел: тот пропал без вести на фронте в первую мировую войну. Мама научила его любить литературу и поэзию. Симонов закончил школу, получил рабочую специальность токаря, но стал писать стихи, публиковать их в газетах и журналах, затем учился в Литературном институте. В годы Великой Отечественной войны был корреспондентом на фронте, его стихи солдаты переписывали, учили наизусть: «Жди меня, и я вернусь», «Ты помнишь, Алеша, дороги Смоленщины» и другие. После войны Симонов писал романы, пьесы, воспоминания. Умирая, Константин Михайлович попросил исполнить его последнюю волю: остаться с теми, кто погиб в первые дни войны. Прах Симонова по его просьбе развеяли над полем недалеко от Бобруйска. В этом году исполнилось ровно

Брестская крепость находилась на границе Советского Союза, с первого дня войны гарнизон вместе с жителями оказался в окружении врага, но не сдался, а продолжал воевать, не хватало боеприпасов, еды, люди гибли, но не сдавались. Спасти удалось немногим. Среди солдат были и дети.
